Developing Managers and Corporate Leaders

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the Institute of Leadership and Strategy, the premier destination for Executive Development, Strategy and Leadership Excellence across Africa. Our purpose is to transform managers into Visionary Leaders and empower Corporate Executives to drive meaningful impact within today's complex and evolving business landscape.

The Institute has been anchored in a commitment to Leadership, Integrity and Excellence. These values shape every programme and training we deliver which guide the transformational learning experiences of professionals across the continent. Through world-class Executive Development, Strategic Leadership Training and Professional Certification Programmes, we provide the tools, insights and frameworks that strengthen leadership acumen and sharpen strategic thinking.

Our mission is to empower Africa's Corporate Leaders to drive innovation, build resilient organizations and foster growth. With tailored programmes such as our Executive Leadership Training and Professional Strategy Courses, we equip leaders with the competencies required to navigate organizational complexity, lead change and influence organizational success.

As we continue expanding our impact through Corporate Training Partnerships, International Collaborations, Consulting Services and Leadership Bootcamps, our vision remains firm; to be the most preferred Executive and Professional Development Institute in Africa.

Whether you are a Senior Executive, Manager, Entrepreneur or Aspiring Leader, we are honoured to partner you on your leadership journey.

Welcome to transformation

ABOUT US

In an era defined by complexity, rapid change and heightened stakeholder expectations, the need for authentic, adaptive and value-driven leadership and strategy has never been more crucial. The Institute of Leadership and Strategy was founded to bridge the widening gap between holding a managerial position and embodying true Leadership Excellence.

We exist to cultivate purposeful Corporate Leaders who think strategically and execute effectively to drive transformation across diverse organizational landscapes. As the premier Executive Development Institute, we are committed to shaping the next generation of visionary Executives and strategic thinkers across Africa.

Built on the pillars of Leadership, Integrity and Excellence, we provide world-class Executive Training, Strategy Development and Leadership Interventions designed to empower Managers, Professionals and Corporate Institutions. With deep understanding of Africa's dynamic business environment, our learning experiences combine global best practices with local relevance, equipping leaders to navigate uncertainties and deliver sustainable impact.

Guided by a powerful mission and a bold vision for the continent's future, the Institute continues to champion the development of competent Strategy Professionals, Senior Executives and Organizational Leaders through our Executive Programmes, Professional Certifications, Consulting Services and Corporate Partnerships.

A photograph of a group of men, likely African, seated at a long table in a meeting room. They are focused on documents and water bottles on the table. The man in the foreground is wearing a white patterned shirt and glasses, resting his chin on his hand. The man next to him is wearing a light-colored t-shirt and is also looking down at a document. The room has large windows with curtains and a door in the background.
